10 VAL, et al.,
11 Defendants.

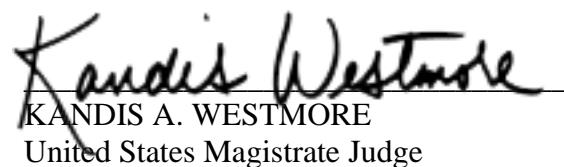

Case No. 4:24-cv-02969-KAW
ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE
Re: Dkt. No. 5

12 Plaintiff filed this civil action and two applications to proceed in forma pauperis. On May 13 30, 2024, the Court considered the second IFP application to be the operative one and denied it
14 without prejudice because it was incomplete to the point where the undersigned could not
15 determine whether Plaintiff qualified for IFP status. (Dkt. No. 5 at 1.) Plaintiff was ordered to file
16 an amended IFP application or pay the filing fee by June 21, 2024. Id. To date, Plaintiff has not
17 filed an amended IFP application or paid the filing fee.

18 Accordingly, the Court ORDERS Plaintiff to show cause, by August 2, 2024, why the case
19 should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute. In responding, Plaintiff must explain why he did
20 not timely file an amended IFP application or pay the filing fee as ordered. Additionally, by 21 August 2, 2024, Plaintiff is ordered to either file an amended IFP application or pay the filing.
22 Failure to respond to the order to show cause and either pay the filing or file an amended IFP
23 application by the deadline may result in the Court reassigning the case to a district judge with the 24 recommendation that the case be dismissed for failure to prosecute.

25 IT IS SO ORDERED.
